The Germans Went to School

The great conflict between Germany and Christian civilization is just at its most terrible moments. We expect the Allies to suffer much because they were so slow in getting ready, but are sure the victory will be on the side of justice and right.

We must acknowledge that the Germans are hard people to beat. We scorn their principles, but we admire their ability.

And that ability has been cultivated by the drill of the schoolroom. Every man in Germany for years past has spent years in school. This has made them wonderfully able to do things. And while we will not imitate their manners and morals, we must use the same means which they have used to bring out the ability of our people.

Let's go to school!

Good for the American Negro

Some people seem to rejoice in the difficulty which the colored race has had in getting a start in lines of progress. We think every true patriot and Christian should rejoice at every sign of progress and should be sympathetic with those who have had such a poor chance.

The war puts men on equal footing, and all the colored soldiers have won approval on the fields of France. Two colored privates, Henry Johnson and Needham Roberts have already been decorated with the Iron Cross.

The Citizen For You

The Citizen in 1918 will continue all its unequalled services for subscribers, and add new ones.

We give the largest value of any periodical in America, and we want YOU to know it.

Every issue is worth a dollar and a half.

7 PAPERS IN ONE:

- A Newspaper
- A Family Paper
- A Farm Paper
- A School Paper
- A Religious Paper
- A Children's Paper
- A Mountain Paper

We pay more for the good paper on which The Citizen is printed; we get more news and make sure it is the truth; we print the thing the people want to know; the families that take The Citizen show a difference in the brightness of the children and the prosperity of the household.

After June 30, 1918 the price will be raised to $1.50. Get our terms on two, three and five years at the old price and let us save you money. Be sure to renew and extend your subscriptions at the old price. See the man in the booth who will tell you when your time is out.

It is possible to get something for nothing, when you take advantage of the old price of The Citizen before July first.

Read the Berea Lincoln Chautauqua program on page 2 and imagine how you would feel if you miss it all. You will be a better patriot if you will let yourself have this great pleasure of hearing every number for the paltry sum of $2.20.

THE CITIZEN will cost you $1.50 after June 30th. It will be a great saving for you to take a long term subscription, say for five years at $4.00; three years for $2.55; two years for $1.80 or one year at the old price before the first of July. See us at the Booth near the Tabernacle and let us save you a good day's wages.

Turn your attention to page 7, and LISTEN, and you will hear sweet music if you have a season ticket in your pocket. Try it and it will be proven to you June 18-22. You will help the Berea Red Cross by doing your little part which no one else can do, but you. Get the idea?

Everything has raised in price; in many cases quality has not improved, but THE CITIZEN has, as its four thousand readers will readily bear witness. We are giving you all ample warning and a splendid chance to extend your subscriptions at the old price before July first. Send in the money and we will mark up your expiration date.

Take a look at Miss Rich on page two, then buy your season ticket for the greatest Chautauqua ever advertised for Berea. The Red Cross Ladies have the tickets for sale.

Of course you are great enough to think with President Wilson even if you cannot lunch with him. Read his letter to the Chautauqua and keep thinking until you persuade yourself that you are going to have a season ticket and be with the great crowd that will gather at the Tabernacle at each program. Get the children tickets for $1.10 each.

Berea Summer School

June 6--August 1, 1918

EIGHT WEEKS

Summer Term

Summer Terms are now the most important terms of the best schools of the country.

It is a time when teachers may go to school to refresh their minds and get new ideas to carry back to their own schools.

There are two or three hundred teachers and prospective teachers in Eastern Kentucky who should attend summer school now. It would add to their efficiency and give them greater skill in meeting the many school difficulties that arise. There are many other ambitious people besides teachers who should go to summer school; High School or College students who failed in a study or lacked one of completing some course this spring should attend summer school at Berea and bring up all deficiencies.

Berea is a delightful place to spend the summer and offers all the inducements for study.

The expenses are much lower than can be found anywhere else in the country; in fact it costs less to spend the summer in school at Berea than it does to live at home.

EXPENSES FOR EIGHT WEEKS

Tuition Fee, for eight points or one unit.	$10.00
Tuition Fee, for four points or one-half unit.	$ 5.00
Hospital Fee, for Boarding Students	$ 1.00
Board and Room	$20.00
*Women $18.00

PRESIDENT FROST

IN OUR OWN STATE

The graded school at Paint Lick, Garrard County, is to build a large annex to their building and have advertised for bids.

The city of Winchester observed the day of "Fasting and Prayer" with a prayer service at 10:30 a.m. at the Presbyterian Church, a patriotic service at 1 o'clock at the courthouse and the usual Decoration Day at the cemetery at 4 o'clock. All business was suspended between the hours of 10 a.m. and 2 p.m.

"Coal week" beginning Monday and continuing through Saturday, within which time the people of the State are urged to order their coal supply for next winter, was officially designated in a proclamation issued Sunday by Gov. Stanley.

All students in the infantry section of the Fourth Officers' Training School at Camp Zachary Taylor will be included in the transfer of the 24th Division to Camp Sherman, only the men in the artillery section remaining at Camp Taylor.

Bud Couch will be tried in Perry County, charged with complicity in the murder of John Baker, for which John Ratliff was given the extreme penalty and Rube Wooten and Nannie Wooten were cleared last week. The Couch case is likely to be passed until the next term of court.

Total figures of the recent Red Cross drive are beginning to take shape. The amount now is estimated at $166,439,201, and when a complete tally is made, it is expected that the oversubscription will reach $700,000,000. Five states tripled their quotas.

A meeting of the State Railroad Commission was held Saturday in Louisville to give all organizations interested an opportunity to discuss freely the probable effects of the order of the Railroad Administration increasing freight and passenger rates.

Post exchanges at Camp Zachary Taylor are "selling out," soldiers are packing their belongings and all is in readiness for the departure of the 84th Division. Relatives and friends of the men crowded the cantonment yesterday to say the last farewells.

Charles E. Herd, editor of the Pineapple News, a daily paper of Middleshoro, in a speech delivered at the Courthouse in Somerset, announced his withdrawal from the race for Congress from the Eleventh district, and said he and his friends would support ex-Congressman D. C. Edwards, of London. This leaves the fight between Edwards and Judge J. M. Robison, of Barbourville.

Maj.-Gen. Hale soon leaves for Camp Sherman, O., his departure to

WORLD NEWS

Nothing has been heard as yet from the collier Cyclops, which disappeared from notice in March. Rumors have circulated of her appearance at different times but they prove to be unfounded. She carried 295 men. She is probably lost and furnishes an example of a traceless disappearance.

The people of Belgium are planning to erect a statue of Liberty at the entrance of the harbor of Antwerp in commemoration of the aid they have been given by America in their day of trouble. The statue will resemble that which stands in New York harbor which was given to us by France.

The obstruction to the channel at Ostend has been so far shifted that submarines may once more go in and out. The base is not being used, however, to the same extent as formerly. The channel at Zeebrugge is apparently still closed. England has honored the leader of the naval forces that effected the raid on these places.

Switzerland is finding much perplexity because of the conflicting delegations that come from Russia and claim to be the rightful representatives of their country. So difficult has the problem come to be that Switzerland has closed the Russian legation for the present thus refusing to decide between the different claimants.

A large number of men who have not yet been naturalized but who are in full sympathy with the cause of the Allies is leaving the United States for France. By a special naturalization law these men are made American citizens before they embark for the old world. A list of the casualties shows many of those killed in battle to be of foreign race and men of all races are fighting for their liberty.

The entrance of Italy into the war was celebrated on Friday by the Italian people of this country as well as by the homeland. President Wilson took occasion to send a pleasant message to the King and received one in return. There are many points of contact between the two countries, and they are being noticed now as never before. Italy has much of the true spirit of democracy.

Turkish troops have made a further retreat in Mesopotamia. This has been brought about just before the harvest and the Turks will thus lose a large amount of food products, which the English will secure. England still holds Jerusalem and considerable territory around the noted city. Improvements of all kinds are being introduced in both locations and the people are being won over.

The attention of the world is directed to the German drive towards Paris. The result of four days of

RITTER-MERRILL

The long anticipated wedding of Miss Evangeline Merrill and Corp. Henry A. Ritter was solemnized in the presence of forty of their intimate friends at 7:00 p.m., Saturday in the Log Cabin Club House on Jackson street.

The bride's father, the Rev. Charles A. Merrill, of Vineyard Haven, Mass., performed the ceremony.

The young couple immediately betook themselves to the hills for a mountain top experience of their new life, spending the night in the Burdette Bungalow on Burdette mountain. Corp. Ritter was obliged to return to camp for duty, leaving Berea on the noon train, Sunday, for Louisville.

Their many friends wish them every joy and the many blessings of wedded life.

SHARPE-STEARN

The surprise of Monday afternoon at an indefinite hour at a half-way point up Indian Fort Mountain under the canopy of the clear blue sky was the wedding of Miss Helen C. Stearns, R.N., head nurse at the College Hospital, and Sergt. Charles G. Sharpe, of Camp Devens, Mass.

The only witnesses present were her sister, Miss Florence Stearns, Dr. and Mrs. Liehtwardt, and the officiating minister, the Rev. Howard Hudson.

It was designed for a private affair which will continue till Thursday, when they shall once more descend to the planes, and then probably separate for an indefinite period.

They have the best wishes of all Bereans that their lives may be filled with joys such as the times may provide.

BEREA COLLEGE RELIGIOUS SOCIETIES

The final joint meeting of the Christian Endeavor of the Union Church, the Y. M. C. A. and the Y. W. C. A. of the College was held in Main Chapel Sunday night. Mr. Edwin Fee was chosen as the presiding officer of the hour, which duty he performed in a unique fashion, as he never will be old and is a dear friend of young people.

The representatives of the respective societies were called to the platform and presented in well chosen language and expressions the work accomplished during the year and the aims of the societies for coming years. It is exceedingly satisfying to know that the young people of today are marching forward in Christian living and becoming the leaders in church work wherever they go.

The Rev. Henry M. Crane, of Boston, after a happy introduction by Mr. Fee, and a happier one by himself, delivered a wonderfully strong sermon after a graphic reading of Jacob's wrestling match with the angel; both of which the young people will never forget.

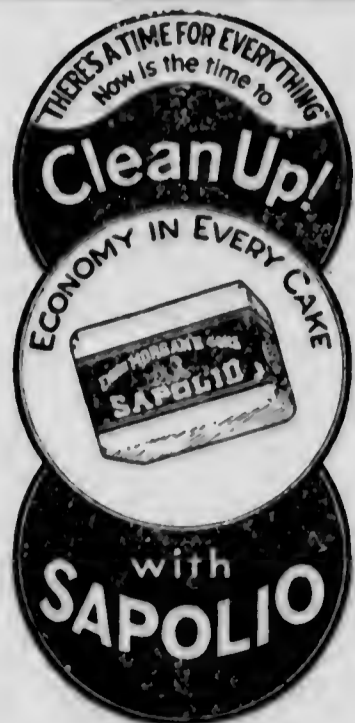

HARMONIA SOCIETY STARS TWICE

When the Harmonia Society undertakes to pull off a stunt you may expect the last to be best; so the records show. The Wednesday night rendition of Robin Hood, with home made make-ups, was pronounced a grand success and the Monday night rendition, with proper costumes, was grander.

The Tabernacle was filled to its full capacity both nights and the joy and pleasure derived by those in attendance is evidenced by their interest. Prof. Rigby and his able corps of singers are to be congratulated. What next?

The Reason.

"No matter what is the trouble, I am always the goat." "That is because you are always butting in."

ACADEMY GRADUATING EXERCISES A SUCCESS

The Academy graduating exercises Saturday evening were unusually good. The program was rather long but it was so varied that it was interesting thruout. The first part of the program was given over to orations, then followed a demonstration of the work of the Academy English course. Both numbers were a success. A short debate and patriotic speeches followed.

ACADEMY STUDENTS ENLIST IN THE NAVY

The Academy Department lost six of its students to the Navy Monday. They were, Messrs. Bowline, Kidwell, Robertson, Davis, Teater, and Williams. These men are among the Academy's best and we believe that they will make good.

LARGE ATTENDANCE IN THE ACADEMY

The Academy Department has had the biggest year of its whole history. There has been enrolled more than one hundred students more than ever before. It is seldom that an Academy student gets dissatisfied and goes home; when they enroll they stay. A course in the Berea College Academy will increase ones efficiency to make good in life and we are glad to see so many young boys and girls come for these courses that are offered here.

THIS, BY THE LATE MACAULAY MIGHT BE WRITTEN TODAY

"Such a display of wickedness, naked, yet not ashamed; such cool, judicious, scientific atrocity, seemed rather to belong to a fiend than to the most depraved of men. Principles which the most hardened ruffian would scarcely hint to his most trusted accomplice, or avow, without the disguise of some palliating sophism, even to his own mind, are professed without the slightest circumlocution, and assumed as the fundamental axioms of all political science."

Thinks Mermaid Was Manatee.

The Journal of Heredity rises to remark that the first mermaid in all probability was not pure invention. In all probability the mermaid story started when some ignorant seafaring man saw nothing less than a manatee sporting himself through the distant waves. At some distance, the scientific periodical observes, the manatee or "sea cow" does not look unlike a human being, the shape of its head and facial formation when indistinctly seen taking on the appearance of life closely akin to mankind.

RITA RICH

Miss Rich specializes in character songs and impersonations, Irish and English, Scotch and Indian; also child songs and stories, which she renders in an inimitable manner. Miss Werno is particularly gifted in Irish and negro dialect, is a capable accompanist and does phonographs unusually well. She is well known in Chicago as a reader and musician, where her talent has been recognized since she was a child.

Pope's Income Uncertain.

It is stated at the Vatican that outside of the actual money capital in the papal treasury, which is the accumulation of many popes, there is no way to determine the actual income and expenditures, for the reason that the income varies from year to year, according to the popularity of the particular pope on the throne, according to world prosperity, and like causes, and that the expenditures must be fixed according to this uncertain income.

Mozart Always Composing.

After stating that while composing Mozart never went to the piano, Niemetschek remarks: "His imagination distinctly and vividly presented to him the whole work he had conceived." Mozart, as he told his father, was always immersed in music, went about with it all day, and liked to speculate, study and reflect. From his wife we learn that his mind was always in motion, that he was continually composing.

Berea College HONOR ROLL

Berea College is proud of the record of its soldier boys. They have answered the call of our country with the spirit of men. We shall always follow up their career with the deepest interest. The names of some are probably not on this list. If any one knows of a Berea man in the Army whose name is not in this list send in the name and address to the President's Office, Berea College, Berea, Ky.

WAR AND CHAUTAUQUA SECRETARY OF WAR BAKER SAYS:

"I am constantly facing the splendid results of the work done by the Chautauques in this country in creating and sustaining a sound patriotic public feeling, and in carrying forward the great national enterprises which the government is necessarily bringing to the attention of our people; and I want you to know that as an officer of the government I not only appreciate the importance of the lecture platform as a means of communication and expansion, but also appreciate the work which you and your associates are doing as a contribution to our national cause."

LINCOLN CHAUTAUQUAS

The Lincoln Chautauques are helping to win the war. Its lecturers are being instructed by Uncle Sam's officials to correctly inform the people on the Government's activities. Superb programs for 1918 will give great inspiration to all the people. High quality and constructive community service are our ideals. Our fourteenth year will be our best in educational achievement.

LIEUT. F. O. BOWMAN HONORABLY DISCHARGED

It is with regret among his many friends and no little disappointment to the young lieutenant that he should be the victim of an injury received while in line of duty that caused his military career to cease. Lieut. Bowman missed more than half of the work in the second training camp on account of his injury; but in spite of it all, he made good and received the commission of second lieutenant and was sent to Camp Jackson, S. C. for duty, with the hope of his recovery; but immediately on reaching camp he was placed in the Base Hospital and received treatment for several months without improvement and was finally honorably discharged on April 13, 1918, on account of "physical disability incurred while in line of duty." He still is hoping to be reinstated in the course of six months or more. In the meantime he has accepted a position as Pay Master with the Cranberry Iron and Coal Co.

EQUIPMENT AND CAPACITY OF NATION'S HOSPITALS LISTED BY DEFENSE COUNCIL

Information regarding the hospitals of the United States, in process of compilation since 1916, is now collated and indexed in the medical section of the Council of National Defense. A central bureau of information concerning the hospital facilities of the country, under war conditions, is thus provided. The data will be kept up to date from month to month.

This bureau has not only the details of over 1,000 active hospitals, but is also gathering full data concerning nearly 8,000 other institutions, which include sanitariums, infirmaries, homes, asylums, and dispensaries.

KENTUCKY

Lieut. George Hembree, who is stationed at Boston, Mass., has been visiting old friends here for the past few days. Lieut. Hembree will be remembered as a former student of the Academy Department. He took his training and examination at Ft. Benjamin Harrison, Ind. Seaman Piner Campbell of the U. S. N. is visiting here for a few days. Mr. Campbell enlisted from the Academy Department last fall. Lieut. William Dean, of Camp Taylor, has been in town for the past few days, visiting friends and relatives.

Mr. and Mrs. Edgar Moore entertained at luncheon Saturday the Rev. Charles A. Merrill, his daughter, Miss Evangeline, and Corp. Henry A. Ritter.

Bro. W. J. Hindspeith returned from Washington, D. C., the latter part of last week, where he has been on business.

Raymond T. Johnson, of the College Department, returned Sunday from a visit to his home in Sadielville.

Mrs. Henry Muncy, daughter Nettie and son, James, of Washington, Ind., are visiting relatives and friends.

Miss Abbie Fish spent from Saturday until Tuesday in Louisville.

Mr. Jake Herndon, who has been in school at Lexington, is home now.

Mrs. Edgar Wyatt returned Thursday from a visit in Lexington.

Paul Ditto, who was in school here in 1917, is now stationed in New York.

Roy Creech is doing good work as a "Hospital Carman" in Pensacola, Fla. Mr. Creech is a Berea student and has many friends here; and we are indeed proud of him.

Dr. and Mrs. Jones of Richmond were the guests of Mrs. Phamey Davis Monday.

Miss Grace Adams, who has been working in the Richmond hospital, is home for a visit.

A musical evening was enjoyed at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Edgar Moore Thursday when Mrs. L. A. Davis, Miss Jameson, Miss Davis and Prof. and Mrs. Phalen were entertained.

A. T. Frazier of Great Lakes, Ill., was a business visitor here from Thursday till Monday.

Principal A. W. Mohr of Sue Bennett Memorial visited the institution Friday enroute to his home.

Mrs. M. E. Coddington, of South Roanoke, Va., and Mrs. Maud Lines of Cincinnati are the guests of Mrs. B. Coddington on Center street.

This was good work for the national drive. Let us keep up our local interests of the Red Cross. We shall soon have another opportunity in connection with the great Lincoln Chautauqua to be Berea's treat from June 18 to 22 inclusive.

Help the Red Cross by buying your tickets for the season at $2.20 and $1.10 and at the same time enjoy one of the best Chautauquas ever staged in Berea. Watch the advertisements in this issue and next week. Don't cheat yourself out of a feast.

DECORATION DAY IN BEREA

The Decoration Day Exercises held in Main Chapel were unusually interesting.

The program was begun on the campus in front of the Chapel by an invocation offered by Dr. Benson H. Roberts and the singing of patriotic songs followed by "A Mother Goose May Party" performed by Grades 1 and 2 of the Training School under the direction of Miss Bonbright. This exercise was excellent.

The audience then retired to the Chapel where the remaining grades performed their part of the program in a very commendable way. The old and the young were alike entertained, as well as instructed in patriotism. The entire program was timely and impressive.

The absence of the former large numbers of the Capt. James West G. A. R. Post brings to the memory of all the passing of the old veterans from year to year. The few who attended accompanied by the Relief Corps were seated in the middle bank of seats and enjoyed the performance of the young people.

Cars were provided for the veterans and the Relief Corps when all proceeded to the cemetery for decorating the graves, accompanied by the College Band. Luncheon was served after which the audience again gathered in the Chapel to listen to a masterly address by the Hon. Erasmus Wilson, of Pittsburgh, Pa. The address was of a high character and brought forth many favorable comments from those who allowed their gray matter to operate during the address. May Mr. Wilson come again.

LAND SALE IN ROCKCASTLE COUNTY

Monday, June 24, 1918, between the hours of 1 and 4 p.m., at the front door of the Court House in Mt. Vernon, Ky., there will be sold to the highest and best bidder two tracts of land located on the head of Little Clear Creek, in Rockcastle County. Tract 1 contains 210 acres, excluding ten acres sold to I. L. Martin on East side. Tract 2 contains 40 acres more or less. These tracts will be sold separately and together and the sale bringing the most money will be accepted.

BEREA WENT OVER THE TOP 775 STRONG

Many have been inquiring about how much Berea gave in the recent Red Cross drive. The reports were just sent in and the amount for Berea and the vicinity about reached the neat sum of $2,774.95. It is truly gratifying to know that the folks in the outlying districts came across liberally for this great cause.

In addition to the above amount the Kentucky State Racing Commission gave to the State for the Red Cross $300,000 which was pro rated according to the different towns' quotas. Berea's quota being $2,000 and the amount received from the Commission was $500 which brought our total to $3,274.95.

vent a further advance.

The treaty made between the emperors at the recent conference has brought Austria-Hungary almost hopelessly under the power of Germany. The military affairs of the dual monarchies are turned over to her powerful ally, not only for the period of the war but for the future as well. There is reason to believe that there is dissatisfaction among the people at this relation, but nothing could be done to prevent it.

American forces have won considerable distinction for themselves by their bravery in taking from the Germans the village of Cantigny, a little to the north of Montdidier. The point is one of importance because it lies along the line of the German's move to separate the forces of the north from those around Paris. Our soldiers repulsed the enemy in several attempts to recapture the place and at last reports were still in possession.

The people of Spain are suffering from a strange malady the exact nature of which is not yet known, or is not reported. Many thousands have been stricken, including the king, Alfonso, and his daughter, the princess, and oldest child. The disease has not proved so fatal as other epidemics but makes the patient very sick. It is not impossible that the warm weather will be marked by such afflictions.

"AWAKE, O ZION"

We are in receipt of a clipping sent in by a friend relative to one of the former workers in Berea, the Rev. W. E. Lincoln, now of Painesville, O.

It states that Mr. Lincoln was a graduate of Hartford Seminary in the class of 1866. He proudly owns the title of "an old abolitionist, who has known bullets, prison, and almost death." At the ripe old age of 87 he has just issued a book entitled "Awake, O Zion."

He was one of the pioneer workers in Berea, being associated with father Fee in the hard days of the beginning of things at Berea, from 1855 to 1868.

Reasonable Conclusion.

"Although the footpad who robbed me of my watch and money last night appeared to me to be unusually tall, he offered in extenuation of the outrage the excuse that he was exceedingly short," commented Professor Pate. "The deduction I draw from the incident is that, in addition to being dishonest, he was also untruthful."

MOUNTAIN AGRICULTURE

Conducted by Mr. Robert F. Spence, Farm Demonstrator and Special Investigator

TO AGRICULTURAL CLUB MEMBERS

Last week we had letters on growing pigs, poultry, and crops. This week I want to call your attention to growing of corn. Our nation is expecting great things of us, and we must Do Our Best.

TO MEMBERS OF AGRICULTURAL CLUBS GROWING CORN

The selection of good seed and the thorough preparation of the seed bed are very important factors toward securing a big crop of corn; but if one were to stop here, the chances of securing a big yield would be small. Success or failure with corn rests very largely on the manner and frequency of cultivation.

The killing of weeds is only one of several important reasons for cultivating corn. Weeds rob the corn of the plant food, water and sunshine which the corn plant must have if it is to make its best growth and yield. Even our best soils have but a limited supply of plant food which the plant can draw on each year. If the weeds get part of this plant food, the crop suffers. Kill the weeds.

Read pages 16 and 17 of Bulletin No. 537, "How to Grow an Acre of Corn," which will tell you more about cultivation. If you have not received this bulletin, let me know at once and I will send a copy.

The first cultivation is sometimes given by going over the whole field with a light spike-tooth harrow. If the harrow is light and the teeth are set shallow, no harm will come to the crop and many small weeds will be killed. Later cultivations should be shallow and preferably with a cultivator which has many small teeth or shovels in preference to the old fashioned single or double shovel plow. Cultivators with several teeth tend to leave the ground level, which prevents the soil drying out so rapidly as otherwise. The old fashioned method of deep tillage is being discarded for the better method of shallow cultivation. Deep cultivation, after the plants are a few inches high, will break off many of the feeding roots which are close to the surface and so injure the crop.

"Every boy on a farm holds a trench of his own." Your trench is your corn field. The weeds and bugs are aiding the enemy by cutting down our yields of food stuff. Don't let them lick you. Go over the top with your cultivator and hoe and conquer them.

Yours very truly,
ROBERT F. SPENCE,
County Agent

P.S. Is your record book up to date?

ROCKCASTLE COUNTY

The farmers of Rockcastle County are working as never before. One farmer said to the County Agent, "I begin work at 5:00 o'clock and quit at 8:00 in the evening, without eating biscuit too. I have made investment in Liberty Bonds and given to Y. M. C. A. and Red Cross. I have more to give, and am willing to give all if necessary to win the war." The whole family is following the footsteps of the leader. Rockcastle County went "Over the Top" in Liberty Bonds and Red Cross drives. She's preparing to go over again.

TO BEREIA TOWNSPEOPLE

Gardens are looking well in Berea, considering the work and season. More work would remove the barrier to the development of crops. Garden crops can't grow when weeds have them by the feet and neck threatening death. Death will come sooner or later to the garden which is struggling with the weeds, if weeds are not moved and soil stirred.

Dogs Could Be Extensively Used to Help Guard Munitions Factories

By H. E. KINGMAN, Colorado Agricultural College, Fort Collins, Colo.

In guarding property during these strenuous times the watchdog has been overlooked. Wherever there is need of a watchman his efficiency may be increased by the company of a well-trained dog. Factories, mills, munition plants, storehouses, railroad bridges, depots, mines and reservoirs must all be protected during war times, and dogs can be easily trained to render an invaluable service.

The highly developed sense of smell enables the dog to locate an intruder in the dark, and many dogs have been trained to give warning in case of fire. A watchman is not liable to be taken by surprise if accompanied by a watchdog. Upon entering a dark room, rounding a corner, or passing a freight car, he may rest assured that no other person is within considerable distance if the dog has scouted the ground before him.

Not all dogs are suited for police work, but most any dog can be trained to be of some service. The breeds of dogs best adapted for such work are the police dogs, Airedales, collies and bull terriers. Bloodhounds are splendid trailers but not adapted for other police duties.

Kindness, firmness and patience are all essential to the successful training of a police dog. A well-trained dog will trail a man until caught and will then prevent his escape. If the culprit chooses to stand quietly, the dog will remain a safe distance and bark, but if the man tries to run the dog will attack him, usually about the legs, and the man is thrown. If a club is used the dog will grab the arm. This usually ends resistance on the part of the man. A shot may stop the dog but it must be a fatal one, since he is trained to attack in the face of fire. Why not give the dog a chance?

SIX DOORS

FOR ASPIRING YOUNG PEOPLE

1st Door—Berea's Vocational Schools

Training that adds to your money-earning power, combined with general education.

FOR YOUNG MEN—Agriculture, Carpentry, Bricklaying, Printing, Commerce and Telegraphy.

FOR YOUNG LADIES—Home Science, Dressmaking, Cooking, Nursing, Stenography and Typewriting.

2nd Door—Berea's Foundation School

General Education for those not far advanced, combined with some vocational training. No matter what your present advancement, we can put you with others like yourself and give chance for most rapid improvement.

3rd Door—Berea's English Academy Course

For those who are not expecting to teach and who are not going thru College and desire more general education. It also gives the best general education for those who wish a good start in study and expect to carry it on by themselves.

4th Door—Berea's Normal School

This gives the best training for those who expect to teach. Courses are so arranged that young people can teach through the summer and fall and attend school through the winter and spring, thus earning money to keep right on in their courses of study. Read Dinsmore's great book, "How to Teach a District School."

5th Door—Berea's Preparatory Academy Course

This is the straight road to College—best training in Mathematics, Science, Languages, History and all preparatory subjects. The Academy is now Berea's largest department.

6th Door—Berea College

This is the crown of the whole institution, and provides standard courses in all advanced subjects.

A Temporary Raise in Board is forced by war conditions. For twenty-five years the board has remained the same in Berea, but the unusual situation in which the whole country finds itself now makes it impossible for us to live on the same money as we have in the past. This adds $6.00 to the former expenses of the girls and $13.00 to the expenses of the boys, but still leaves the cost half that of other schools and "cheaper than staying at home."

PAYMENT MUST BE IN ADVANCE, incidental fee and room rent by the term, board by the half-term. Installments are as follows:

FALL TERM
Expenses for Boys
	VOCATIONAL AND FOUNDATION SCHOOLS	ACADEMY AND NORMAL	COLLEGE
Incidental Fee	$ 5.00	$ 6.00	$ 7.00
Room	7.00	7.00	7.00
Board, 7 weeks	12.25	12.25	12.25
Amount due Sept. 11, 1918	24.25	25.25	26.25
Board, 7 weeks, due Oct. 30	12.25	12.25	12.25
Total for Term	$36.50	$37.50	$38.50
Expenses for Girls
Incidental Fee	$ 5.00	$ 6.00	$ 7.00
Room	7.00	7.00	7.00
Board, 7 weeks	10.50	10.50	10.50

* This does not include the dollar deposit nor money for books or laundry.

Special Expenses in Addition to Incidental Fee—Business
	Fall	Winter	Spring
Stenography and Typewriting	$14.00	$12.00	$10.00
Bookkeeping (brief course)	14.00	12.00	10.00
Bookkeeping (regular course)	7.00	6.00	5.00
Business course for students in other departments:
Stenography	10.50	9.00	7.50
Typewriting, with one hour's use of instrument	7.00	6.00	5.00
Com. Law., Com. Geog., Com. Arith., or Penmanship, each	2.10	1.80	1.50

In no case will special Business Fees exceed $15.00 per term.

Any able-bodied young man or young woman can get an education at Berea if there is the will to do so.

If it is impossible for any young man or young woman to be in school the full year, by all means they should enter for a course during the winter and spring terms.

The public schools will close about Christmas and the teachers and advanced pupils should not be idle through the long winter months but should be studying in Berea where the best education can be gotten for least money.

Applicants must bring or send a testimonial showing that they are above 15 years old, in good health and of good character. This may be signed by some former Berea student in good standing or some reliable teacher or neighbor. The use of tobacco is strictly forbidden.

For information or friendly advice write to the Secretary,

MARSHALL E. VAUGHN, Berea, Ky.

Mr. Montaville Flowers,

President, International Lyceum and Chautauqua Association.

It has been on my mind for some time to thank your organization for the very real help it has given to America in the struggle that is concerned with every fundamental element of national life. Your speakers, going from community to community, meeting people in the friendly spirit engendered by years of intimate and understanding contact, have been effective messengers for the delivery and interpretation of democracy's meanings and imperative needs. The work that the Chautauqua is doing has not lost importance because of war, but rather has gained new opportunities for service.

Let me express the hope that you will let no discouragement weaken your activities, and that the people will not fall in the support of a patriotic institution that may be said to be an integral part of the national defense.

Cordially and sincerely yours,

WOODROW WILSON.

MANY SUBSTITUTES ARE DISPLAYED AT LEIPZIG FAIR

According to the Leipzig correspondent of a Christiana newspaper, the Leipzig spring fair showed exhibits of many substitutes and surrogates which have been placed on the market in Germany. Descriptions of some of these have been received by the United States Chamber of Commerce.

A surrogate for pepper is offered for sale which, judged only by its appearance, seems almost the same as real pepper. The color, odor, and taste have been surprisingly well imitated.

A tea is shown to which the name of "German tea" has been given. It is prepared from any one or a combination of a great variety of plants, from strawberry leaves to linden blossoms. It is said to taste very much like genuine tea, but even a half dozen cups will not produce the stimulation caused by a single cup of real tea.

There are any number of surrogates for marmalades. Most of them are prepared from garden vegetables instead of from fruits, with a minimum amount of sugar.

Substitute soap is offered for sale, which is said to have been prepared from the oil in berries and from pumice stone. It lacks, however, the one main characteristic of soap, that of working up into a rich, creamy lather; otherwise it is very good. Substitutes are also to be had for laundry bluing.

Substitute bicycle tires are sometimes made of two concentric iron rings with small springs between them. They are very serviceable on asphalt pavements, but are not exactly as noiseless nor as easy riding as genuine rubber tires.

A large number of articles offered for sale had been prepared largely or entirely from paper—coarse working clothes for men and women, blouses, aprons, and other fabrics. There were paper belts which seemed capable of driving heavy loads. Many artificial and substitute leathers were noticed. Brass and copper articles were not seen, and attempts were made to place substitutes on the market in the form of plated wares.

MISS MARGARET HALL

Miss Margaret Hall is a graduate dietitian of eight years' experience in teaching Chautauqua audiences the practical relation of food to health. Her work proves a revelation to housewives and is practical and instructive. Miss Hall comes to the Chautauqua platform this summer with full information direct from the Government concerning the need of Food Conservation and practical suggestions that all should hear and heed. Her lecture will be especially appropriate, will be right up to the minute and replete with helpful information along the lines of food economy. Miss Hall is on our Chautauqua program.

War-time Responsibility—Yours and Ours

National necessity has put a new responsibility on every motorist.

Utmost service is demanded—the highest usefulness of yourself and your car.

Service and economy are your only considerations.

Our responsibility goes hand in hand with yours.

As the largest rubber manufacturer in the world, it is our duty to supply you with tires of unfailing reliability and extreme mileage.

United States Tires are more than making good in this time of stress.

They are setting new mileage records—establishing new standards of continuous service—effecting greater economy by reducing tire cost per mile.

There is a United States Tire for every car—passenger or commercial—and every condition of motoring.

The nearest United States Sales and Service Depot will cheerfully aid you in fitting the right tire to your needs.

THE INTERNATIONAL SERIES

Text of Lesson, Mark 15:22-39—Memory Verse, John 15:13—Golden Text,
Mark 15:39—Commentary Prepared by Rev. D. M. Stearns.

After such a night as never before nor since was passed by mortal man, in the garden, and before the chief priests and the council, they bound Jesus, and carried him away and delivered him to Pilate, the Roman governor, that he might have him put to death, as a malefactor, who was perverting the nation, and forbidding to give tribute to Caesar. After Pilate's repeated assertion that he found no fault in him, and being warned by his wife not to have anything to do with him because of a dream she had, it being his custom at that feast to release unto them a prisoner whom they might select, and having a notable prisoner who had been a murderer, he gave them a choice between Barabbas and Christ, hoping that they would surely ask for Christ. The chief priests and elders persuaded the multitude to ask for Barabbas, and destroy Jesus. When Peter rehearsed this in one of his discourses he said, "Ye denied the Holy One, and the just, and desired a murderer to be granted unto you, and killed the Prince of Life" (Acts 3:14-15). When they called for Barabbas, Pilate asked, "What will ye then that I shall do unto him whom ye call the King of the Jews?" or, as it is in Matt. 27:22, "What shall I do then with Jesus, who is called Christ?" They cried out, "Crucify him" (vs. 5-14). Pilate therefore took water, and washed his hands before the multitude, saying, "I am innocent of the blood of this just person; see ye to it." Willing to content the people he released Barabbas unto them, and delivered Jesus, when he had scourged him, to be crucified (vs. 15 and Matt. 27:24). Oh, but it is hard to read it and write it. What do all the atrocities of this present war amount to compared with this treatment of the Son of God, who giveth us all life and breath and all things? When Pilate said, "Behold your King," the chief priests said, "We have no king but Caesar" (John 19:14-15), and they have had their choice ever since even till now.

Jesus in the hands of the soldiers mocked, crowned with thorns, smitten, spit upon, a robe put on his bleeding back and taken off again, and his own clothes put on with rude and cruel hands, and the cross laid on that back makes one shudder, and sick at heart (vs. 16-21). Whether he stumbled or was not told, but it is just a mite of relief to see the cross taken from his poor bleeding back and placed upon another. What a privilege was thus conferred upon Simon the Cyrenian whether he realized it or not.

Reaching the place of crucifixion, he would not accept any stupefying potion, but calmly submitted to be crucified for us, made a curse for us, that we might not perish (vs. 22-24; Gal. 3:13). Can you see him as he meekly bore all this shame and pain in your stead, and not say from the heart "God forbid that I should glory, save in the cross of our Lord Jesus Christ, by whom the world is crucified unto me and I unto the world" (Gal. 6:14). We can meditate upon all the agony of that night, and that day, on which he made atonement for the sins of the world, and talk of it, and sing of it, but to understand it or in any sense realize it is simply impossible. We should say from the heart, see what it cost him to redeem me. Mark gives the three hours of his crucifixion, the darkness, and his death, the third, sixth and ninth hours, Jewish time, which would be our nine, twelve and three o'clock (vs. 25, 33). Consider all the Scriptures fulfilled in the piercing of his hands and feet, the dividing of his raiment, his being numbered with transgressors, not a bone of him broken, and others, and expect as literal a fulfillment of all Scripture. Consider the reviling of those who passed by and of the thieves, and that when he was reviled he reviled not again (1 Pet. 2:23-24). Consider his seven words, or sayings, from the cross and their significance, and application to you.

The veil of the temple was a symbol of his body (1 Heb. 10:20), and when he died it was rent in twain from the top to the bottom (vs. 38). It was full of figures of cherubim, symbols of his redeemed, and they being rent when it was rent teach us that when he died we died with him (Ex. 36:35; Gal. 2:20; Rom. 6:8, 11). Joseph of Arimathea asked Pilate for the body and he and Nicodemus prepared it for burial and laid it in Joseph's new tomb and thus fulfilled another Scripture which said, "They made his grave with the rich in his death" (vs. 42-47; John 19:38-42; Isa. 53:9).

The women who ministered unto him beheld where his body was laid, and returned, and prepared spices and ointments, that they might anoint his body when the Sabbath was past, and they rested the Sabbath day according to the commandment (vs. 47; Luke 23:55, 56). Their love was real but not believing what he had said about his rising again the third day it was love's labor lost.

Notice what is written in Matt. 27:52-60 about sealing and making sure the tomb, and consider man's vain thoughts. Contrast the shutting up and sealing of the devil in the abyss for a thousand years (Rev. 20:1-4).

Why We Believe the Bible

By REV. W. W. KETCHUM
Director of Practical Work Course,
Moody Bible Institute, Chicago

It may be helpful to some who are wondering if the Bible is the Word of God, if we state some reasons why Christian men and women believe the Bible.

It is not a mark of learning, as some would have us think, to disbelieve the Bible. Mr. Gladstone, England's greatest statesman, said, "It has been my privilege to know intimately sixty great men and all but six of them were earnest acknowledged Christians."

Belief in the Bible is not a leap in the dark. It is not attempting to believe it when we have no evidence whether it is true or not. Belief in the Bible rests upon evidence which to those who believe in the Bible is sufficient for them to accept it as the Word of God or man.

1. One evidence upon which our belief in the Bible rests, is its own testimony. Believing it is unfair to judge it without hearing what it may have to say for itself we listen to its own testimony.

One does not read far in the Bible before he comes to such statements as these: "Thus said the Lord," or "The Lord said." These phrases, or like ones, occur over five hundred times in the first five books of the Bible, and over twelve hundred times in the prophetic books. In addition to this we find that the men who wrote the Old and New Testaments claim their utterances to be divinely inspired, and the New Testament tells us that "holy men of old spake as they were moved by the Spirit of God," and that "all Scripture is given by inspiration of God," that is, God-breathed.

Besides this, the book assumes to speak authoritatively from God to man. Now with this testimony before us, we are shut up to one of two conclusions; either it is what it claims to be, or it is a fraud. Having examined, studied and tested the book with the acid test of experience, we are persuaded that its lofty claim is established.

II. Another evidence which has led us to this conclusion and upon which we rest our belief is the unity.

While it is a library of sixty-six books, it is nevertheless one single book and while it was written by about forty different writers, it has a singleness of plan and purpose. This in the face of the fact that its authors wrote over a period of something like fifteen hundred years. There is only one way to account for this unity and that is by believing that there was a great architectural mind that designed and executed his plan.

III. Again an evidence upon which we rest our belief in the Bible is its teaching.

It is the one book that tells us about God; who he is and what he is; that tells us about man, whence he came, what he is, and whither he is going. It reveals the love of God in the plan and purpose of redemption through Christ. Without the Bible, we should be searching try to find out God and by guessing to discover ourselves. If it, we have come to know God, whom to know aright is life everlasting, and to know ourselves.

What was said of our Lord can be said of the Bible: No book ever spoke like this book. It is, indeed, a lamp unto our feet and a light upon our path and shows us the way to that city whose builder and maker is God.

IV. A fourth evidence upon which our belief rests is fulfilled prophecy.

Take for instance the prophecies concerning Christ of which there are three hundred and thirty-three in the Old Testament. All the prophecies concerning his first advent have minutely been fulfilled. These prophecies stand the severest tests, so that we know that we are not deceived as to their fulfillment so there was no possible way for the prophet to have known how they were coming out. But they came out as predicted. This is only one of many lines of prophecy, which we would examine. Those concerning the Jews which led a court preacher, when asked by his sovereign to prove the Scriptures, in one word to answer: "The Jews, your majesty, the Jews." And the prophecies concerning the great political systems of the world; such as Babylon, Medo-Persia, Greece, and Rome.

Let anyone, who is in doubt about the Scriptures study the evidence of prophecy and he will find ground for faith in the Bible.

V. Then finally, the evidence of what the Bible does is ground for our belief in it. Its fruits it can be judged. It has civilized nations, transformed the lives of millions, given hope to the hopeless, cheer to the downhearted, comfort to the sorrowing, consolation to the dying and taken bell out of life and put heaven in. What the Bible does gives us ground to believe it must be of God.

Road to Heaven.

No man ever went to heaven without learning humility on this side of the grave.—Rev. H. P. Liddon D. D.

HANDICRAFT FOR GIRLS

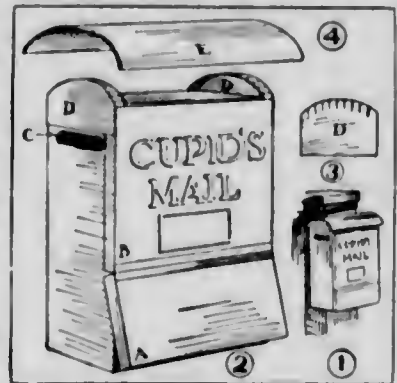

By DOROTHY PERKINS

(Copyright, by A. Neely Hall.)

FOR A SAINT VALENTINE'S DAY PARTY.

Ask each one invited to your St. Valentine's day party to bring a valentine for sending through Cupid's post office. The names of the boys and girls must be placed upon the back of their valentines, and the valentines dropped into Cupid's mail box immediately upon entering your home.

Cupid's mail box is easily constructed out of a cardboard box. Cut a piece from the cover equal to one-third of its length, and with a strip of cloth hinge together the two parts (A and B, Fig. 2), and sew the rim of part B to the sides of the box.

Part A is hinged to provide for the removal of mail. In the end of the box at C, cut a slot for the letter-drop.

The arched top of the box is made by fastening the pieces of cardboard D (Figs. 2 and 3) to each end of the box, and then attaching a bent piece of cardboard to the tops of these. Slash the curved edge of pieces D, and turn them down for flaps to glue the curved piece E to.

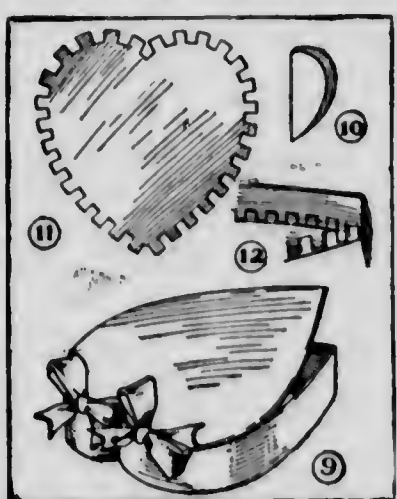

Have your little brother or some small boy friend play the part of Dan Cupid's postman (Fig. 5). A schoolbag for a mail sack, a pair of cardboard wings (Fig. 6), a cardboard bow and arrow (Fig. 7), and a postman's cap (Fig. 8) are needed.

Make the cardboard band A of the cap to fit the boy's head, and cut tabs on the edge of the top piece B to turn down and glue to the inside of the band. Also cut tabs on the upper edge of vizar C, and glue them to the inside edge of band A. Make the heart D of red paper, letter "Cupid's Mail" upon it, and glue it to band A.

The postman should collect the mail previous to the serving of refreshments, and sort it over, placing in one pile the valentines posted by girls, and in another pile those posted by boys. Then taking the girls' valentines in his bag, he should distribute them among the boys. Each boy's supper partner will be the girl whose name is written upon his valentine.

When the partners have been selected in this way, the postman should deliver the boys' valentines to the girl partners of the boys whose names are written upon the backs.

A heart hunt is a jolly game for beginning the fun at the valentine party. There should be large hearts, small hearts, half hearts and quarter hearts, and these should be concealed in every accessible hiding place, prior to the guests' arrival. Count one point for each heart recovered.

Make heart-shaped candy boxes like that shown in Fig. 9 for each place at the supper table. Cut the top and bottom out of heavy red paper, making them heart shaped by a pattern folded and cut as indicated in Fig. 10. Cut little tabs upon the edge of the bottom piece (Fig. 11), bend up these tabs, and paste a strip of paper to them to form the sides of the box (Fig. 12).

COURTING TROUBLE.

It was a red-letter day for Pat Finnegan. For the first time he was a member of a jury. Dressed in his best suit he was about to depart for the courthouse when his wife asked him where he was going.

"Shure, an' it's to court O'm going," replied Pat.

The next day the same thing happened. However, on the third morning things came to a climax. Mrs. Finnegan again asked the question.

"Shure, it's to court O'm going," said Pat.

Mrs. Finnegan took the rolling pin and got in Pat's way.

"Now, Pat," she replied, "take off them good clothes; yer not going to court. If there's any courtin' to be done, shure, ye'll do it here, an' do it with me!"

Truth About Premonition.

"Once in a while an error turns out to be the truth," said the editor.

"How is that?" asked the caller.

"Why," replied the editor, "in writing about the death of Mrs. Rounder I referred to Mr. Rounder as 'the bereaved widower,' but the compositor made it 'the relieved widower,' and it got into the paper that way, and Rounder never even called up to demand a correction."—London Tit-Bits.

JACK OF ALL TRADES.

Her Remedy.

"When I told Maria her new hat was unbecoming, she said she would face the trouble and make it the subject of serious reflection."

"And did she?"

"Sure. She went for the nearest looking glass."

Public Representation.

"After you are gone they may set up a statue of you."

"Don't suggest it," replied Senator Sorghum. "I've been looking the statuary over and I don't want any. It's had enough to be cartooned while you are alive."

Getting His.

"You seem to enjoy seeing the judge with his wife."

"Yes, I like to see him get some of his own medicine."

"Eh?"

"I like to see her overrule him."

Forgetful.

Mr. Brown—What did I do with my hat, Jane?

Mrs. Brown—You left it on your head, Bill.

Mr. Brown—Gosh! Next thing I'll be leaving my head in my hat.

Was He Right?

"What's the dispute about?" demanded the proprietor. "Remember, in this store the customer is always right."

"He says you're an old shark," explained the clerk briefly.

JONAH'S REPUTATION.

"Opportunity makes the man."

"Sure thing; where would Jonah have been if the whale had not been waiting for him?"

Change.

Ruth is an alchemist I know, And so I'll have to drop her. For every time I'm out with her My silver turns to copper.

In These Days.

"It's as useless as the fifth wheel to a wagon."

"That usage is out of date. All automobiles carry an extra tire."

SMITH-SPRING-HOLMES ORCHESTRAL QUINTET

THE COMPANY ARTISTIC.

This company gives a program of the greatest variety of any company in the chautauque field. Every number is different. Their instrumentation is so varied that one selection on each instrument or combination of instruments is all that can be crowded into one program, with the exception of the ensemble, which appears at least three times. Not only do these artists excel along instrumental lines, they are noted for their versatility, their program also including a dramatic reading. The Smith-Spring-Holmes people know the art of program building and how to please discriminating audiences. Hear this splendid company at the Chautauque.

AMERICAN GLEE CLUB

Several qualities distinguish the American Glee Club. While recognizing the importance of variety in chautauque programs, this company believes that a quartet should put emphasis upon ensemble singing. These men bring with them a style, personality and poise that give them not only a high musical standing but a distinct social standing. Their sketch was written by Mr. Foote. It is brimming with comedy, yet is of such a character as not to detract from the dignity of their program. This quartet is on the Chautauque program.

Messrs. Smith and Holmes are composers well known to the musical world. Mr. Holmes wrote the march, "The Prospector," used as the official march at the St. Louis Fair, and played by a band of over eleven hundred musicians. Mr. Smith is a contributor to three leading musical magazines and writes both words and music for his songs.

SHERM'S DOTS

THE DOTS SOMEWHERE IN FRANCE.

By Clifford Leon Sherman.

Dear Folks:—The man we picked up in the open boat out at sea turned out to be a French fisherman, whose schooner had been sunk by a submarine the day before. The Germans didn't even let him have time enough to dress, but he managed to cut a dory loose and escaped in that. All of the rest of the crew were lost. He told us all about it as he was eating his first meal in thirty-six hours. And how that man did eat! He was mighty glad to be saved, and we were just as glad as he was. All that he managed to save was his dory and his pet SAMMY.

McKee

McKee, June 2. — There are several cases of measles near town. — The Division Board of trustees for this division met here last Saturday and employed teachers for most of the schools in this division. — Miss Agnes Farmer was employed to teach the McKee public school. — Mrs. D. G. Collier and daughter, Lucille, have been visiting relatives in Conway and Lexington the past week. — Mrs. Grace Aist, of Forreton, Ill., is visiting her parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. F. Engle. — Mr. and Mrs. A. W. Baker entertained a number of young folks at their home last Monday evening. — Lloyd Lawson and Jasper Redden, of Berea, visited friends in McKee last week. — The McKee Council of the Junior Order and the Red Cross entertained 47 of our soldier boys on the evening of the 25th. All of these boys were sent to Camp Taylor. They were a fine lot of young men and will, no doubt, make good soldiers. At the close of the entertainment $50.00 was donated by the audience to the Red Cross War Fund. — Miss Retta Pas, teacher in the McKee Academy, is visiting home folks in Michigan. — Misses Stamm, Depagter, and Donigan spent last Wednesday and Thursday in Beattyville. — Miss Greenwood, member of the Women's Board of Domestic Missions, together with Rev. and Mrs. Wm. Worthington and Miss Zweymer, were in McKee last week. — Rev. Wm. Worthington gave a lecture at the chapel of the Academy on Thursday evening, and preached at the same place Saturday evening, Sunday morning and Sunday evening. — Last Sunday morning, Taylor Lee, a deserter from the army, was arrested at the home of his mother, near Green Hall. In making the arrest, the sheriff shot and slightly wounded Lee in the left arm. — Mr. and Mrs. Lloyd Powell, of Kerby Knob, visited Mrs. Powell's parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. K. Sparks, Saturday and Sunday.

CLAY COUNTY

Malcom

Malcom, June 4. — We are having fine weather, and farmers are all busy. — Gardens and potatoes are looking fine. — No sickness in this neighborhood, except Mrs. Brownling, and she is able to sit up some. — The Green Lantern Club met at the home of Miss Mattie Clarke and had a picnic last Saturday. All report a splendid time. There were forty of the boys and girls present. — The oil men who have been drilling on Dr. H. C. Hornsby's farm report a dry hole. — John Henry Downey and wife, who have been visiting friends and relatives here, have returned to Atlanta, Ga., where Henry is in training for service in the great war. — Leonard and George Downey paid home folks a visit last week, but they returned to Hamilton, O., where they are employed. — Several of the boys of draft age are being called from this vicinity. — Misses Ethel and Callie Anderson attended the services held last Sunday at K. of P. Hall at Vine in honor of the members who are in the service of our country. — Married last Sunday, John Fench and Miss Lizzie York, the Rev. Mr. Larkin Garnett officiating.

LEE COUNTY

Beattyville

Beattyville, June 3. — The crops of every kind are looking fine throughout the county and we have the prospect of a bumper crop. — Circuit court adjourned here last Saturday, after being in session about three weeks, trying mostly, civil suits. — The protracted meeting closed at the Christian Church; it had been going on over a week, conducted by the Rev. J. A. Hawkins of Indiana. — The Division Board of Trustees met in their respective places of meeting last Saturday to employ teachers, but quite a number of the trustees failed to employ teachers, owing to having no applicants. It seems we are short of teachers this year. — J. B. Cable of Pinecastle was in town on business. — The oil boom is still better in this county now, and good wells being drilled every day. — Miss Elizabeth Cable of Torrent is visiting her many friends here at present.

MADISON COUNTY

Blue Lick

Blue Lick, June 3. — The dry, hot weather of the past week has been extremely favorable to plant growth and farming operations. — Wheat is promising a heavy yield, a week or ten days at least will usher in the harvest. — Meadows, pastures, oats, rye and potatoes continue prosperous; tobacco plants are fine and transplanting is the chief activity of this section. — Miss Myrtle Johnson of this vicinity, a graduate nurse of Berea College Training School, attended an examination of the State Board at Louisville recently and passed with high honors, thereby acquiring the title of R. N. — Quite a number from this section attended the play, "Robin Hood," given by the Harmonia Society in Berea, May 29. — Every day the news from the battle front adds to the gravity of the situation confronting us. Every day mothers are bidding farewell and God speed to their sons; yet there is cause for courageous expectation that peace will ultimately dominate the world. This situation calls for a degree of individual loyalty and self denial on the part of every man, woman and child. We must prepare for hardships and sacrifices hitherto unknown and endure with patience, and joy the realization that we have done and are doing something for our country and for the stricken brothers over the sea. — Elmo Flanery of the 16th Aero Squadron, "somewhere in France" continues to write regularly to home folks. He writes always that he is well and happy; but owing to the strict censorship being exercised at present, his communications are very brief. Every one from this section is looking forward to the great annual event: Berea Commencement. Let every one go and get the inspiration from the source that never fails.
